

CSG1207/CSI5135: Systems and Database Design

Lab 06 – Result Screenshots

Introduction

These images depict the results of correctly written queries for lab tasks. They are a good way to validate your answer without needing to read the solution, or to get a better idea of what is required if you are having difficulty understanding the question. Your results may vary slightly from those below, for example if you have changed data in the database.
